Motion by: Kim Floyd    2nd By: Michelle Carr    Approved: unanimously

(3) Agenda

- A. Bus Wrap follow-up (Angelo & all)
No Follow-up; was in the Oklahoman on Bike to Work Day
- B. Bike to Work Day Debrief (Angelo, James)
Rainy biking, didn't cancel; few people came to the event; Asst City Manager attended.
About 40 attendees some presentations were given.

Reapply for Bicycle Friendly City status will be due this year.

Food Trucks – city employees were able to get lunch; 2nd Friday may happen with food trucks on Peters and close the street and borrow the Parks & Recreation picnic tables.
- C. Potential skills course at Ruby Grant Park: (Gary, Lee, Kim)
Tobin can't find the materials for the skills course details

Tom Woodfin is preparing some slides, definitions for a skills course to present to BAC July 13th first and then Parks Board in first Thursday in Sept for discussion
- Options for skills course for different ages and what they look like
  - Options for locations: Sutton Woods, Ruby Grant Park, cemetery, other locations
  - Lack of parking needed ( like 8 spaces); bike to the location is the ideal; parking thresholds ideal
- D. Engagement with Norman Forward Effort

Various pdfs are on the City of Norman website; many lists of projects being discussed. Tom encouraged the committee to review the various projects, includes trails (though some of the connections may be tricky or how to accomplish is unknown).
- Some modifications to the trails were being updated – going up 77 toward Tecumseh; will allow a nice loop around OU property.
- E. Status reports:
- Enforcement (OFC Perry)
No updates
  - City of Norman Updates (Angelo, James)
Rain, Rain, rain. Fixing roads, dealing with mosquitoes
  - Education: LCI Events / 2015 OK Bike Summit - (Tom, Lee)
